What I mean by solving the problem and not just quieting the alarm is that you cannot just take a pain reliever and remedy hemorrhoids. This just silences your body's natural alarm that is telling you that something is amiss. Sooner or later, (usually sooner), the pain reliever wears off and you are back to square one. What you need is to treatment hemorrhoids, not just their symptoms.

“ Topical remedies used to cure hemorrhoids tend to be guilty on this very offense. In no way does a topical treatment have long term positive effects to cure hemorrhoids. True, they reduce the pain. And true, this is not bad. But it can not be your only way to be able to cure hemorrhoids. You need to find a proven oral treatment that will give you the long term relief that you are looking for that treats the problem as well as the symptoms.
